Knowledgebase and Creating the Match

Matching the perfect candidate to the right position is the most important part of what StaffMeds provides. Our Company is experienced and knowledgeable in the many steps we take to communicate with clients and screen all potential candidates. We interview the most qualified physicians, nurses, office managers and other medical personnel in the field today.

Systematic Screening

Our Company has developed the most accurate placement solutions to meet your needs. In order to validate applicant credentials, candidates are thoroughly screened and tested. We use a well-established online screening system to identify the most experienced candidates by interpreting detailed test information, which includes:

- Comprehensive skills inventories
- Pre-employment drug screening
- Criminal background checks
- State licensure and license verification
- Other screening as required

Speedy Applicant Processing

At StaffMeds, we begin working on your placement immediately. Using search engines, along with instant online screening results, our recruiting managers quickly develop a pool of potential candidates. Thus, by processing the applicants efficiently, we control administrative costs and reduce your advertising budget.

Dynamic Advantage

Regardless of the position or practice size, we do not stop until we find the perfect match. Even more, we provide your organization with a host of other non-clinical professionals, such as administrators and clerical, among others.

Partnership

A majority of hospitals are currently experiencing moderate to severe nursing shortages, and that trend is not expected to improve in the foreseeable future. StaffMeds partners with your company in securing the highest quality, most talented and dedicated staff.

StaffMeds Locum Tenens

The StaffMeds locum tenens give your organization the opportunity to ensure your patients have the care they need. We reduce the risk on your company's practice by matching the most qualified locum tenens with the positions in demand. Also, the revenue generated by the locum tenens remains at your practice or healthcare facility.
